CEPR is a network of over 1300 researchers based primarily in European universities. The Centre's mission is 'Research Excellence with Policy Relevance'. It promotes world-class research and delivers the policy-relevant results to public- and private-sector decision-makers. A registered charity since it was founded in 1983, CEPR is independent of all public and private interest groups. It takes no institutional stand on economic policy matters.

President, CEPR

"CEPR has become a synonym for the kind of economics we need."

Mario Draghi

"The premier centre of policy-oriented research in Europe, perhaps even the world."

Stanley Fischer

CEPR Membership offers unique access to cutting-edge research with direct relevance for economic policy issues, and to the leaders shaping Europe's economic, political and financial future. Benefits include privileged access to meetings and publications as well as direct access to Europe's most influential and established network of academic economists.
