Monetary-Fiscal Management of a Global Recession

August 27-28, 2018

Sala del Sindaco, Palazzo Orsini, Galatina (Lecce)

This workshop aims to bring together research on the management of global recession at times of unconventional monetary policy and limited fiscal space. This includes research on the differential impact of financial and economic crises on households and firms, as well as the existing policies which have been implemented to confront and overcome them.

The Program Committee welcomes submissions of theoretical or empirical papers addressing issues including (but not limited to):

- Heterogeneity in aggregate demand and supply
- Monetary-fiscal stabilization and interactions
- Imperfect information
- Open-economy dimensions

The following speakers have already confirmed their presence:

Florin Bilbiie (Paris School of Economics)

Sergio Rebelo (Northwestern Kellogg)

Pedro Teles (Catolica Lisbon)

Gianluca Violante (Princeton University)

The workshop will include about ten presentations with discussions. The workshop organization will be able to cover accommodation expenses for speakers and discussants. Financial support from the chair Banque de France at the Paris School of Economics is kindly acknowledged.

Please send a pdf of your paper to salento.macro.meetings@gmail.com and specify whether you are eventually willing to participate to the workshop as discussant. The deadline for submissions is April 15th, 2018.
